UKSIF LAUNCHES FREE AFFILIATE CATEGORY FOR PENSION FUNDS

London, 29 March 2011— Occupational pension funds will be able to get free information and support from UKSIF, the sustainable investment and finance association, following the launch today of UKSIF’s new “Pension Fund Affiliate” category.

The new category is open at no charge to all occupational pension funds that do not manage investments internally.

The services available will include access to UKSIF’s monthly e-newsletter and invitations to selected UKSIF information and networking events.

Penny Shepherd, UKSIF’s Chief Executive explained that “Pension funds increasingly need to keep abreast of developments in sustainable and responsible investment but it can be difficult to justify additional membership fees. This new category will enable occupational pension funds to receive regular information and invitations to selected events at no charge to them.”
